

ZOMICS

A Festival of Zines and Comics

March 6, 2024

12 - 2 pm

Wignall Museum Patio, Rancho Cucamonga Campus

ZOMICS: A Festival of Zines and Comics and related programming are presented as part of a collaboration between the Arts, Communication, and Design Academic and Career Community, the Wignall Museum of Contemporary Art, and the Chaffey College Library. These programs were made possible in part due to the generous support of Rancho Cucamonga Community & Arts Foundation and the President's Office.

PROGRAMMING

WORKSHOP

Printzine with Grafica Nocturna

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31, 2024

12:30 – 2:30PM

CAA-210, Rancho Campus

Join local artists Cesar Omar Garcia and Adam Aguilar from the San Bernardino-based artist collective, Grafica Nocturna to learn some simple printmaking techniques that you can use in zine-making or your art/craft practice at home. No experience is necessary, all supplies are provided.

DISCUSSION PANEL

Zines & Comics as an Act of Resistance:

a panel discussion

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2024

12:30 – 2PM

WH-142, Rancho Campus

Join Professors of English, Adam Martinez and Neil Watkins as they moderate a panel discussion with zine/comics creators and artists Tamara Cedré, Michael Segura, and Daniel Whitfield. This event will instruct attendees on how writing, art, and self-publishing are acts of creative expression as well as acts of resistance in an age of censorship and political turmoil, and ultimately how these art forms can act as catalysts for change. Students, faculty, and staff will learn how to create their zines and comics. They will also learn about the interconnections between writing, literature, illustration, graphic design, and social justice.

ZINE FEST! 2024

ZOMICS: A Festival of Zines and Comics

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 2024

12 – 2PM

Wignall Museum Patio, Rancho Campus

Join local artists and distributors at Zomics: A Festival of Zines and Comics! Meet and greet more than 20 artists from the region, and read/buy their zines and comics. Enjoy light refreshments, music from DJ Abstractmachine, live screenprinting with Duan Kellum while supplies last. The festival is free and open to the public.
