Overview of Important Changes

What is ILP?

The Intelligent Learning Platform (ILP) synchronizes data between a student information system (SIS) and a learning management system (LMS).

What will Change

- Updates to Canvas enrollments and courses will happen within seconds rather than hours.
- Official grades will be submitted directly in Canvas

Enrollments

Current Practice	Student enrollments are added two weeks before the start of the term
	Faculty assignments are added two months before the beginning of the term
With ILP	Course enrollments for faculty and students will begin with the start of registration. For example, Spring 2023 registration begins on November 7th.
What this means	Once faculty are assigned or removed from Colleague, they will immediately reflect in Canvas. Students can view their enrollment in Canvas once they register.
What does not change	Students can not access course content until the faculty publishes the course. The faculty maintains control in publishing the course based on terms dates.
Canvas Tips	How do I change the start and end dates for a course?

Terms

Current Practice

- Terms are divided into tracks
 - 2022 Fall
 - 2022 Fall Fast Track 1
 - 2022 Fall Fast Track 2
 - 2022 Fall 14 Week

With ILP

- The terms will no longer divide into different tracks
 - Spring 2023

What this means

- The term dates will reflect the term dates associated with the course.
 - Ex: Spring 2023
 - January 9 May 18

What does not change

- Students only gain access to course content once the course is published
- Faculty remain in control of setting course dates

Canvas Tips

- Nickname a course to reflect the course term visually.
 - Create Nickname
- Faculty can update course term dates.
 - How do I change the start and end dates for a course?

Crosslisting

Current Practice

• The course grouping/cross-listing option is only available for sections that are the same course, have the same start/end dates, and are the same modality

With ILP

 ILP allows for cross-listing but only those courses marked as cross-listed in Colleague

What this means

- Course grouping/cross-listing is no longer available by request
- Those cross-listed in our informational system will be automatically cross-listed

What does not change

- This will not change most instructors' current view of their Canvas shells
- Those courses that are cross-listed will see the names of all their courses cross-listed courses in the title and course card. For example, the name of the cross-listed courses will show ART-18-27711.2022/FA, ART-35-27714.2022/FA

12454.8. 3+ 4.31447

Grading

Current Practice

- Final grades are submitted in self-service.
- ITS runs a process overnight to post grades entered into the student's transcript

With ILP

ILP allows for grades to be pushed from Canvas to Colleague immediately

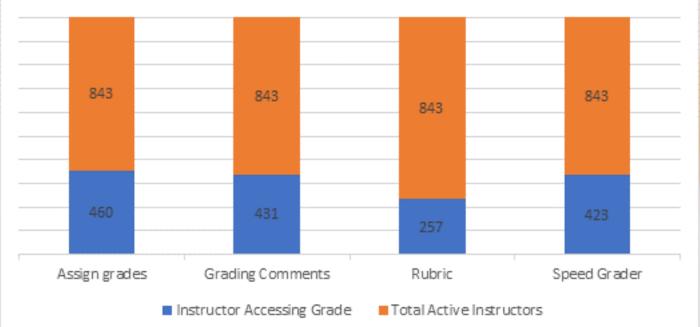

What this means

- Grades from the grade book are submitted by faculty without leaving Canvas
- Once grades are submitted, they are immediately available to students

Canvas Tips

How do I use the Gradebook in Canvas?

Grades Access in Canvas

Communication/Support

- Biweekly global announcements to faculty in Canvas
- Leveraging DE Coaches
- Grading workshops (see DE Calendar)
- Visits here and Academic Senate

Faculty Communication Guidelines

As we enter post-pandemic conditions and enter a new sense of normalcy within the Chaffey community, the Academic Senate would like to provide guidance for faculty regarding the district approved modes of communication.

During the pandemic, faculty shifted modes of communication to solely online options. Many faculty used any and all modes of communicating in an attempt to foster connection with students. Faculty may have implemented the use of their personal email, phone numbers, and social media in order to communicate with students. There have been instances where non-professional communication blurred the lines between student and faculty roles.

District approved modes of communication:

- Chaffey email
- Chaffey voicemail
- Canvas Inbox
- Canvas Extensions (e.g. Pronto, Chat, etc.)
- Chaffey Zoom account
- in-person communication

It is in each instructor's best interest to maintain a heightened level of awareness and professionalism when interacting with students. This will encourage a sense of personal security as well as developing student security. This also puts both the student and the faculty at reduced risk of possible misunderstandings leading to legal complications.

The Academic Senate encourages the use of Canvas extensions that can provide an interactive and collaborative environment for students to communicate and connect. Please reach out to the DE Coach in your area for more information.
