

BP 4260 Prerequisites and Co-requisites

The Superintendent/President is authorized to establish prerequisites, co-requisites, and advisories on recommended preparation for courses in the curriculum. All such prerequisites, co-requisites, and advisories shall be established in accordance with the standards set out in Title 5. Any prerequisites, co-requisites, and advisories shall be necessary and appropriate for achieving the purpose for which they are established.

The procedures shall include a way in which a prerequisite, co-requisite, or advisory may be challenged by a student on grounds permitted by law. Prerequisites, co-requisites, and advisories shall be identified in District publications available to students.
