BASEBALL & SOFTBALL OPEN AT HOME TUESDAY

Panther fans... come cheer the Panthers on to victory Tuesday as both teams open their 2009 home seasons. The women take on Oxnard at 1 pm and El Camino at 3 pm on Panther Field while the men face Citrus College at 2 pm on Lowder Field. Don't forget to pick up your complimentary baseball program and 2009 winter/spring schedule card at any Panther baseball home game.

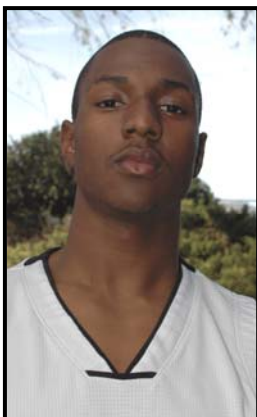

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SUFFERS 3 POINT LOSS TO AVC IN FINAL MINUTE

With a foul and a technical foul on Arione Nabors with 18.3 seconds remaining in regulation play, Antelope Valley had the opportunity to reclaim Wednesday's game with 4 possible free throw points. Marauder Siasosi scored game tying and winning baskets taking the score to 51-53. Another foul with 4 seconds remaining scored AVC the 54th point. Leading the Panthers was Arielle McClellan with 15 points (2 3-s and 3/4 free throws). The women take on Victor Valley at home tomorrow at 1 pm.

As of 1/19 State Poll... The women are ranked #15 in the state!

MEN'S BASKETBALL BEATS AVC BY 1 IN THE FINAL MINUTE

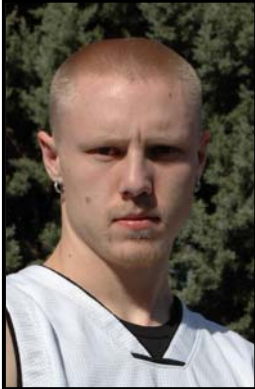

Scoring 22 points against Antelope Valley Wednesday, Nick Turner lit up the court leading the Panthers to a 71-70 win. With 11.2 seconds remaining in regulation play, the Panthers were fouled by AVC's Raymond Cody. Two made free throws by Winston Robinson took the Panthers to a 1 point lead and on to win the game. Turner scored 13 of his 22 points in the first half. Also dominating the court tonight was Lamar Williams with 17 points including 3 3-s. The men return home tomorrow to take on Victor Valley at 3 pm.

As of 1/19 State Poll... The men are ranked #10 in the state!

PANTHER ALUM SCORING POINTS AT CULVER-STOCKTON

Chaffey Panther basketball alumnus, Bobby Kovach, is making a difference on the court for Culver-Stockton College (MO). Kovach (Chaffey College 2005-07) lit up the court against Evangel University Saturday scoring 22 points and nine rebounds. That comes on the heels of his 25-point, 14 rebound performance in last week's victory over Graceland.

WATERMAN PENTATHLON CHANGED TO FEBRUARY
