FERPA Challenges for Front Line Staff:
DO'S & DON'TS TO STAY COMPLIANT

Can a front line employee freely share information about a student’s account balance, grades or class attendance when a parent asks for it?

Is it okay to share information about a student with law enforcement officials whether they have a subpoena or not?

What happens when someone calls and says there is an emergency and they can’t find a student?

WEBINAR
Thursday
October 3
10 AM - 11 AM
FSC ATL 109
909-652-6974

Join us at the FSC for this webinar where you and your colleagues will learn:

Do's & don'ts for releasing student records.

What you can & can't disclose under FERPA routinely or in a crisis.

Most common challenges presented to front line staff.

Real-life examples of challenging FERPA issues on the front line.

These and other questions represent some of the major challenges that arise for your college's front line staffers as they attempt to comply with FERPA guidelines.