What is the most important day of the semester? Many educators argue that the first day of class is the most important in many ways: 1) it sets the tone, purpose, and energy for the entire semester, 2) it creates opportunities to immediately build rapport, trust, and community with and among students, and 3) it frames the guidelines and approach for learning and interaction for the class.

Join this interactive, experiential workshop as we explore a variety of strategies, activities, and approaches for effective first day/first week experiences in the classroom.

Light lunch will be provided.

BOGO – Bring One, Get One
If you bring another faculty member who has not attended an FSC FED or workshop in the past two years, then both of you will receive a raffle ticket. Faculty who attend on their own for the first time in the past two years can also receive a raffle ticket. I will draw tickets at the end of the semester for a prize.
