Furthering dialogue about equity and ethnicity on campus and responding to current events in America, the One Book, One College Committee has selected Anna Deavere Smith's "Twilight, Los Angeles, 1992" for next year's College Book. This radical, revolutionary play dramatizes real-life accounts in and around the Los Angeles Riots of 1992 to point us through the mistakes and violence to co-create a future of hope and inclusion. In this introductory workshop, Instructors Keener and Piluso shall share cross-disciplinary activities, suggested assignments, and most importantly, hear your ideas for how to apply this important book's themes to your discipline for our students' maximum impact and benefit.

Tips for Teaching
TWILIGHT, LOS ANGELES

Furthering dialogue about equity and ethnicity on campus and responding to current events in America, the One Book, One College Committee has selected Anna Deavere Smith's "Twilight, Los Angeles, 1992" for next year's College Book. This radical, revolutionary play dramatizes real-life accounts in and around the Los Angeles Riots of 1992 to point us through the mistakes and violence to co-create a future of hope and inclusion. In this introductory workshop, Instructors Keener and Piluso shall share cross-disciplinary activities, suggested assignments, and most importantly, hear your ideas for how to apply this important book's themes to your discipline for our students' maximum impact and benefit.

FACILITATORS

Daniel Keener
Robert Piluso

FSC ATL 110
Monday
May 4
12:30 PM – 1:30 PM

Light lunch will be provided.

BOGO – Bring One, Get One
If you bring another faculty member who has not attended and FSC FED or workshop in the past two years, then both of you will receive a raffle ticket. I will draw thickets at the end of the semester for a prize.