Would you like to help students make connections between courses and careers? Are you uncertain about bridging your courses with career exploration and/or skill development? Do you already integrate these practices in your courses?

Let's explore, develop, and learn together!

The facilitators will share specific resources and practical strategies for infusing career development and exploration across the disciplines. Participants will have opportunities to collaborate as they consider general use options and course specific connections.

FACILITATORS

Melissa Utsler
Wendy Whitney

Register by March 24th @ 3pm