INVASION OF THE GUERRILLA GIRLS!

REINVENTING THE "F" WORD: FEMINISM

OCTOBER 23 7PM
CHAFFEY COLLEGE THEATRE

Guerrilla Girls are a bunch of anonymous female artists who take the names of dead female artists as pseudonyms and appear in public wearing gorilla masks. They produce books, posters, billboards, stickers, actions and other printed projects to expose sexism and racism in politics, the art world, film and culture at large. They use humor to convey information, to provoke discussion, and to show that feminists can be funny. They wear gorilla masks to focus on issues and not on their personalities. In October, Chaffey College will welcome one of the Guerrilla Girls to speak about the important work they do internationally to combat racism, sexism and to promote issues of equality.
