Public Programs
at the Wig

Chaffey College and the Wignall Museum of Contemporary Art are pleased to present a series of free, public programs in conjunction with the exhibition Food for Thought: A Question of Consumption, on view at the Wignall Museum from January 18 – March 24, 2012.

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Panther Lunch Club Mondays with Edith Abeyta

All Panther Lunch Club events are from 12:30-1:30pm

A multifaceted installation of outreach, education, and social engagement, the Panther Lunch Club positions artist Edith Abeyta in the roles of activist and organizer. Inspired by The Black Panther Party’s Service to the People Programs, Abeyta posits that the government has continued to fail us and that we must work cooperatively to change and empower our daily lives when it comes to everyday necessities such as food. With Panther Lunch Club, Abeyta co-hosts an open dialogue with artists, activists, scholars, and representatives from government agencies to discuss the practicalities, politics, access, and solutions to our current food crisis.

January 23  Philosophical De beet with Heather Anacker
January 30  Survival Strategies: Back of House Voices Silenced No More with Christina Sanchez
February 6  Raising Chickens in the City from Egg to Stew with Reies Flores and Arturo Ernesto Romo-Santillano
February 13  Not Worth a Hill of Beans with Katrina Alexy
February 27  Tart and Tang, Beautiful Antiques to Eat with Jessica Rath
March 5  Bread and Butters with Michael Lewis Miller
March 12  Cakewalks, Bake Sales, and Potlucks as Subversive Grassroots Fundraising in the Kickstarter Era with Edith Abeyta

LMK Thoughtful Food Fete with Lauren Kasmer

All participants who submitted a recipe/story as part of LMK Thoughtful Food are invited to attend this fun food fete. Please bring the dish/recipe that you submitted to be photographed and to share! This event is open to anyone else who would like to learn more about LMK Thoughtful Food with Lauren Kasmer. Free and open to the public.

January 21, 11am-2pm | February 14, 12:30-2pm | March 3, 11am-2pm

Lauren Michele Kasner, from LMK Thoughtful Food, 2011-2012. Courtesy of the artist

Food For Thought:
A Question of Consumption

Curated by Rebecca Trawick
January 17 - March 24, 2012