Internship, auxiliary and volunteer programs are instrumental in a student’s professional development. You can also seek general career advisement through the faculty of the Administration of Justice program for both sworn and civilian justice positions.

Physical Fitness

Fitness and strength training should start as soon as possible and be maintained as a lifestyle regiment. There is not adequate time to “become fit” while in a law enforcement academy. Chaffey College offers a wide variety of PE classes including tennis, yoga, aerobics, body conditioning and self defense to help you meet your personal fitness goals as well as those for justice positions.
