

Classified Travel & Conference Funding

Do you have your supervisor's support to attend a conference, but don't have the funds for it? Good news! There are some state funds available for classified professionals to access by using the Classified Travel Funds Request.

This form is meant for funding only and you should still work with your departments to complete the district's Travel and Conference form.

Requests will be approved on a case by case basis until all funds are used.

