Faculty Senate President’s Board Report

January 25, 2018

John Machado, Art History Professor

- On December 20, 2017, John was appointed by Mayor Dennis Michael and the Rancho Cucamonga City Council to the newly formed Public Art Committee. Committee duties include advising the City Council regarding the selection, purchase, placement, and maintenance of art installed by the City or on City property.

Shannon Jessen, Biology Professor and Morgan Cole Math Professor

- January 5-6, Shannon and Morgan attended a Faculty Learning Program for Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) hosted at the University of California, Riverside (UCR). This program brings together STEM faculty from UCR and local community colleges to improve their instructional practice, with emphasis on effective design of active learning strategies. The desired outcome is to improve undergraduate student outcomes in STEM. The program will continue throughout the Spring and Fall semesters via online sessions and peer review of classroom activities.

Sheila Malone, Theater Arts Professor

- Designed projections for Pasadena Dance Theatre's annual production of The Nutcracker at the San Gabriel Mission Playhouse in December. A current Chaffey College student Jordan Romero assisted her.
- She also has a newly published peer-reviewed essay, "The Politics and Policies of Noise: Motorcycles Making, Masking, and Muddling the Noise of Protest" in Lateral, the journal of the Cultural Studies Association. This special issue, "Not a Trump Issue" features essays responding to our political present and our collective past. The essay can be viewed, http://csalateral.org/issue/6-2/politics-policy-noise-protest-malone/

Don Schroeder, Broadcasting and Cinema Professor

- Wrote, produced, and directed a series of Public Service Announcements (PSA) in support of single-payer, Medicare for all. The PSA's starred Lily Tomlin, Ed Asner, Adam Arkin, Scott Wilson, L.A. County Supervisor Sheila Kuehl, Ed Begley, Jr., Wendy Walsh, and (in Spanish) Rafael Leyva. The PSA's were released over several weeks in the fall of 2017.
- He also, authored an article titled, "Why the cost of corporate health insurance is too high," published in the Orange County Register on December 18, 2017. The article can be viewed here, https://www.ocregister.com/2017/12/18/why-the-cost-of-corporate-health-insurance-is-too-high/
Abel Chen and Thierry Brusselle, Business Administration Professors
➢ Abel and Thierry attended the Career Pathway Institute Project in Sacramento, January 10-12. Professors Chen and Brusselle are developing the International Business Pathway with International Business Industry Specialist, Eddy Sumar, and Riverside Unified School District high school teachers David Dillon and Elizabeth Phillips.

Richard May III, Adjunct Communications Studies Studies Professor
➢ Has been selected to show one of his artworks in a new exhibit at Ontario Museum of History and Art. The exhibit, Diversity and Inclusion: The Influence of African-American Art in Southern California, runs from January 27 through February 25, 2018. The exhibit reception and artist talk is Saturday, January 27, from 2-4 pm.

Alyse Emdur, Adjunct Photography Professor
➢ Has a solo show, Skunks and Flowers, at ODD ARK LA. The show is an installation of 42 paintings on paper. The opening reception for Skunks and Flowers is Saturday, January 13, 4-8pm with show will running through March 4, 2018. For more information go to, https://www.oddarkla.com

Ken Koenigshofer Retired Tenured/Adjunct Psychology Professor
➢ Ken Koenigshofer's article "General Intelligence: Adaptation to Evolutionarily Familiar Abstract Relational Invariants, not to Environmental or Evolutionary Novelty," published in the Journal of Mind and Behavior, is available in full text online at, https://www.researchgate.net/publication/322508956_General_Intelligence_Adaptation_to_Evolutionarily_Familiar_Abstract_Relational_Invariants_Not_to_Environmental_or_Evolutionary_Novelty

On Campus

Deanna Hernandez, Assistant Professor of English and Shelley Marcus, Reference Librarian
➢ In order to promote equity and with an eye toward guided pathways, Assistant Professor of English Deanna Hernandez and Reference Librarian Shelley Marcus teamed for an embedded librarian project for Professor Hernandez’ English 575 class, Introduction to Reading and Writing. Shelley took part in multiple class sessions in order to convey the importance of the library and the research process. The team explored the concepts of “cultural wealth” and “grit.” They also delved into career choices, the paths that lead towards them, and the Chaffey resources instrumental in those paths.