- leave for reproductive loss (Government Code Section 12945.6); and
- leave pursuant to Government Code Section 12945.8.

Vacation leave for members of the classified service, confidential employees, educational administrators, and classified supervisors and managers shall not accumulate beyond that which is identified in the collective bargaining agreement or personnel plan. Employees are encouraged to request vacation in a timely manner to avoid accumulation of excess vacation.

In addition to these policies and collective bargaining agreements, the Governing Board retains the power to grant leaves with or without pay for other purposes or for other periods.
