Sherrie welcomed the group and thanked everyone for their work on generating the bullet points for each of the accreditation standards that will be presented today. The notebooks and office supplies that were distributed to the group as promised.

Sherrie showcased the new Planning & Resource Allocation Flow Chart that was recently developed and a brief question and answer period ensued.

A representative from each sub-committee was invited to present the bullet points that the subgroup generated. After the presentations, Sherrie advised everyone that their work was finished for the time being they will be contacted when additional information or work is needed.

Two members of the ASCC were recognized for their attendance and were encouraged to participate on this committee.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:30am.
