FROM SISTER TO CISTER

Wednesday, March 8

2:00-3:00pm CCSJ-AD 109

In an effort to spark conversations that guide us to a path toward inclusivity, connection, and understanding, Koatzin Kamil shares her story as a transwoman and invites cisgender women to be allies for transgender women in the fight toward a collective, liberated future. Koatzin Kamil (she/her) is an unDACAmented, two-spirit, transgender woman born in Mexico that has been involved in activism since 2010. She is a dreamer, a survivor, and an optimist. She is currently a mental health worker that yearns for the time when mental health resources are accessible to everyone- but especially to her transgender kin.

HERstory ft. Alisha Rosas

Thursday, March 9

12:00-1:00pm AD 151

Join us for a conversation with Alisha Rosas, Chaffey's own Associate Superintendent of Student Services and Strategic Communications, as we learn about her journey and the way she created HERstory through communication strategies, writing a book, and advancing equity.

MINDFUL MAMA'S COLLECTIVE : POSTPARTUM HEALTH AND WELLNESS WORKSHOP

Wednesday, March 29

12-1pm HYBRID

MACC 208 | <https://tinyurl.com/postpartumw>

Motherhood is a lot of things, but one thing it doesn't have to be is lonely. Mindful Mama's Collective is here to help you create balance between motherhood and womanhood in a holistic, mind + body centered approach. This workshop will introduce you to helpful tools and resources to help you feel empowered and understood!
