Together in Purpose, Grounded in Belonging

California Community Colleges

2025 EVENT CALENDAR

MONDAY (OCTOBER 13)

Lunch with Allies

12:00 pm – 1:30 pm

In-person:

Wignall Museum Patio (Rancho)

Enjoy a free meal, connect with peers and campus allies, and take part in writing uplifting postcards with positive messages for our undocumented communities.

Food will be provided while supplies last.

TUESDAY (OCTOBER 14)

Hostile Terrain 94 Toe Tag Completion Workshop

10:30 am – 12:00 pm

In-person: CAA 210 (Rancho)

In preparation for the Hostile Terrain 94 exhibition (January 12 – March 14, 2026), join us for a participatory workshop to honor lives lost crossing the Sonoran Desert region of the U.S.-Mexico border. Participants will complete toe tags representing each life and reflect on the human impact of border policies through discussion and grounding activities. Space is limited to 30 participants.

Food will be provided while supplies last.

CSUSB Undocu Transfer Workshop

2:00 pm

Online: Zoom

ZOOM LINK »

Hosted by the CSUSB Undocumented Student Success Center, this workshop is designed to support undocumented community college students through the admissions process. Learn about CSUSB's commitment to undocumented student success, including free immigration legal services, an inclusive paid internship program, and a dedicated student center. Open to students, faculty, counselors, and staff who support undocumented communities.

WEDNESDAY (OCTOBER 15)

No One Is Illegal on Stolen Land: A Panel Discussion of Migration, Geography, History, & Art

1:00 pm – 2:30 pm

In-person: CAA 211 (Rancho)

In concert with the Wignall Museum exhibition, Radical Geographies (September 2 – November 8, 2025).

Join Professors Francis Almendarez (Photo/Video & Art), Laura SantamariaBrady (English), and Miriam SomeraGarcia (ESL) Michael R. Manalo-Pedro (Ethnic Studies) for a dynamic conversation on the forces shaping migration today. The discussion will explore mass deportation, incarceration, climate change, and the role of art and activism in envisioning more just futures. Moderated by Professor Neil Watkins (English). Food will be provided while supplies last.
