Club Report	The club is doing well. We are somewhat struggling with new attendance, but have a wonderful main group of returning members each week. This week on September 22nd we had a guest speaker, Joz Sida, come and talk about local politics happening in the Inland Empire and our members were very well engaged. Overall good prospects for the future and we're excited for next month Lgbtq+ History Month.
Upcoming Club Events	The club plans to participate in Trunk or Treat on the 25th of October. We have informed Sonia of our plans and obtained two car spots. We also have two other events planned in that same week of October; one being our Spooky Queer Flix in student life on the 26th at 2-4pm and the other being Queeraoke also at student life on the 29th at 2-6pm.

Club Report	So far, our club is making great progress on building community and reassurance for not only our club members, but all Chaffey students. Our previous club meetings have gone smoothly, and we are excited about future club meeting.
Upcoming Club Events	We have a fundraiser happening on October 21st from 4pm to 7pm at Kohinoor Bites Pizza.
Club Collaboration Events	We have planned in advance a whole month's work of collaboration events with clubs and Chaffey staff members. During the meeting on October 21st, we plan on collaborating with Circle K International for a presentation, which includes a joint volunteering event. Then, on November 4th, we plan on doing a PIQ workshop with the help and guidance of Chaffey counselors. And lastly, we will be collaborating with our past TUC president for an application workshop.

Club Report	Lasted for 90 minutes (3 to 4:30PM) The club meeting began with introductions for James Hamilton, Jason Ellis, Dean Valezuela, and Adeon Roldan. Then, the Club Officers and Members participated in a Cosplay Contest in which participants dressed up as an anime character, and the participants were judged by the Club Officers based on accuracy to the character's look, the style and creativity of their costume, and their performance (if any of them wished to do it up in the front of the classroom) on a scale of five. In the final minutes of the contest, the contest concluded with James Hamilton winning first place, Virginia MacRill winning second place, & Josue De Leon winning third place. After that, the Club voted on an anime to watch on YouTube, with To Be Hero X, getting seven votes, becoming the anime to watch.

Club Report	The club has had a guest speaker Mason Van Bibber talk about his experience and help provide insight on what jobs look for as well as how to make your own portfolio. Our subcommittees KODA, Twisted Plastic, Rocket Team and Microcontrollers are have had fluctuations in members being able to join and not being able to join however a lot of progress is being made with people learning more about microcontrollers and others seeking to have rocketry certifications. The club participated in Trunk or Treat, we had a game like pin the tail on the donkey but instead it will pin the nozzle on the 3d printer.
Upcoming Club Events	The club plans to keep having subcommittee meetings at the usual times that they are held.

Club Report	The K-Pop Club has been hosting meetings introducing our members to different aspects of the K-pop scene through various club bonding events like dance workshops, playing trivia, and hosting popular Korean games. Recently, our club was a part of this year's Trunk or Treat, where we had a Squid Game themed set-up based on the hit Korean Netflix series. We hosted popular Korean games, specifically Ddakji and Cham Cham Cham, that the kids could play in order to get even more candy at our trunk. Overall, our club is doing well so far as we're beginning to foster a growing community.
