a. Club Funding Request – Club/Event – Chaffey College Car Club / 12th Annual Chaffey College Car Show

- Description – The Car Show is the Car Club's primary fund-raising event that helps us create opportunities to give back to the college. We invite students and community members to bring their vehicles for a fun day of music, food, car watching, trophies, and opportunity drawings. The profit generated from the event is used to give back to the Chaffey community in the form of student scholarships, purchases to support students with insecurities and their families, as well as fun events like the trunk-or-treat event.

- Funding Requested – $1,000.00

b. Club Funding Request – Club/Event – Black Student Union / Karaoke Night

- Description – Collective of students coming together to network and communicate with other students all while enjoying a karaoke night. There will most likely be a venue for event to provide more space for majority participation.

- Funding Requested – $1,000.00

c. Club Funding Request – Club/Event – Business and Entrepreneurship Club / 2023 Spring Entrepreneurship Networking Luncheon

- Description – The 2023 Spring Entrepreneurship Networking Luncheon is an upcoming event aimed at bringing together Chaffey students, faculty, and local communities interested in entrepreneurship. The event will provide a platform for attendees to network with other like-minded individuals and establish connections that may lead to future entrepreneurial endeavors. At the luncheon, students will have the opportunity to meet with successful local entrepreneurs who will be sharing their experiences and insights into starting and running a successful business. Additionally, the event will provide
