About Collective Care

Collective Care: Uncovering Poverty is a collaborative series of programs developed by the Center for Culture and Social Justice (CCSJ), the Panther Care Program, and the Wignall Museum. Impacts from the global pandemic continue to affect our students and communities, and record level rates of food and housing insecurity affect the basic needs of millions of Americans.

Collective Care: Uncovering Identity is a collaborative series of programs developed by the Center for Culture and Social Justice (CCSJ) and the Wignall Museum that bring together artists and community around issues relevant to the LGBT+ Community.

Join us to connect as we examine these issues together. All programs will be held virtually.

The Wignall Museum of Contemporary Art

The Wignall Museum staff remain committed to engaging, inspiring, and educating our community through experiences with contemporary art and culture.

The museum staff are slowly and safely returning to campus and hope to open our doors to the public in 2022. In the interim, we will continue to present virtual programming. Sign up to receive our email announcements at www.chaffey.edu/wignall

With respect and honor for the lands we gather on and the leaders before us, we acknowledge the Gabrieleño-Tongva Peoples, the original stewards of these sacred and unceded homelands. The Tongva people's history, language(s), cultural traditions, and legacy continue to shape this region and we recognize their continuing presence in their homelands.

In the spirit of truth and equity, Chaffey College commits to uplifting the voices of indigenous peoples, building an inclusive and equitable educational environment, and decolonizing the institution. We also encourage members of the Chaffey College community to learn about the land they reside on and the original caretakers and advocate for culturally responsive action.
